37 Mr. Nuñez said he will provide FYI end of year draft.

38
39 8.4. JARC (Updates) – Aralis Chacon

40
41 Ms. Chacon said there have been changes in staff; Mateo Ortega is the Senior 42 Director at FYI; I am moving into the manager position for the LVP Division. New 43 supervisor for JJS Program will be Viridiana Valadez. JARC has approximately 44 $6,000 remaining in the budget, we had 85 youth served this year with a total of 45 74 intakes, 53 of those were school referrals. Have seen a great increase the 46 last 2 months. Hired a new resource coordinator who is reaching out to the 47 school counselors, and administration helping with referral sources. We were 48 granted a small contract through the JJS program, this will assist with housing,
49 to qualify they need to be on probation (juvenile), 18 – 21 years old; it will pay up
50 to 3 months, lease will be under their name, and they are responsible for the

1 deposit. If you know of someone that needs housing assistance, send them to
2 La Vida Project, 118 S. Main St. Our youth impact members Alyssa and Diego
3 are getting certified to be peer support workers.
4

5 Mr. Rank said there was an article in the Las Cruces Newspaper addressing
6 affordable housing with Go Bonds.
7

8 Ms. Abeyta said there is a survey available to the public, to fill out what they 9 think are priorities, there are some things that have been identified like housing.
10 GO Bond of $23 million dollars will post to the voters in November. I will send 11 you the link, it is in our city website as well.
12

13 8.5. JCP (Updates) – Robert L. Nuñez 14

15 Ms. Hughes said we have seen an increase in referrals formal and informal. We 16 are currently working on outreach in the county area which is needed the most 17 for programming and community service. Receiving referrals from parents. We 18 have had presentations from: JPO, Workforce Connection, Housing, etc., 19 continuously work with other community partnerships. Working with our 20 community garden which is going very well. Bringing in more resources for our 21 participants.
22

23 Mr. Nuñez said we have completed the interview process for the Juvenile
24 Diversion Program Supervisor position, have made recommendation and waiting
25 on confirmation from applicant. Working with Human Resources, Purchasing
26 and Legal with the Coordinator position that will assist with the board. This will 27 be a contract position through the city.
28

29 Mr. Nuñez said that Ms. Hughes is our Case Worker and is assisting with the 30 Juvenile Diversion Program Supervisor position until filled. I appreciate all that 31 she has done for the organization, department, and section.
32

33 34 8.6. FY23 Contract (Updates) 35

36 Mr. Nuñez said we will be presenting to council the FY23 contract. This is our 3rd
37 year of a 4-year contract. One of the changes that has been included in the 38 contract is Trauma-Responsive and Coaching Training is required, CYFD will be 39 providing the vendors and resources.
40

41 Mr. Rank said that he would recommend contacting the judges, district court, DA
42 office, etc. this was proposed 10 years ago.
43

44 Ms. Madrid said she will email Grace Duran see if she will consider, attending
45 the training to be more informed about the program.
46

47 8.7. Continuum Board Member (Updates) 48

49 Dr. Lozano said that I am sure everybody has heard of the LCPS calendar
50 change to a balance calendar, students will return to school July 20. They will

1 have 2 weeks break in September. Calendar is online, for your information of 2 changes.

3
4 Mr. Arellano said he is humble, grateful and warms his heart when he hears of 5 all the services that are provided by the different organizations/agencies at this
6 board. I am here to provide/teach the community and youth how to play Chess.
7 If any of your agencies are interested in learning the game, contact me.

8
9 Mr. Rank said he attended the tournament, and it was great seeing the parents
10 and children interacting. Start as a pilot program. Request funding from CYFD
11 for this program, show that this is a pro-active prevention for children. Will need
12 to provide data, show success, etc.

13
14 Mr. Nuñez said he will ask Marty to set up a meeting and invite other
15 supervisors, to discuss further the program.

16
17 Ms. Abeyta provided an update on a project that the city has, Lift Up Las Cruces
18 it is a new initiative that was brought in a collaborative effort, it is taking census
19 maps that show poverty and overly crime data, and what has come up, there are 20 certain communities that have pop up as problem zones, the first neighborhood
21 has been identified in Mayor Pro Tem district, district 1 and so they are going to 22 address some of the needs of the community, with addressing infrastructure,
23 going in and doing some approving road ADA, sidewalks, etc. With 24 programming, Movies In the Park are being held at Apodaca Park, Parks &
25 Recreation are having different events, we are trying to address it in different
26 ways, hopefully help with these communities. There will be a survey that is 27 bilingual asking what communities think. There are 3 communities that have 28 really stood out that we would like to get addressed. It will be funded through our 29 Telshor Fund at first, but we are seeking additional funds. Prevention and pro-
30 active approach. It is a community approach; we do have other community
31 partners. If there are any questions, or would like more information, please feel 32 free to reach out to me.

33
34 Mr. Nuñez said that through the US Conference of Mayor grant, a $10,000 grant
35 was awarded, and we were able to purchase 24 laptops and 2 charging stations
36 which will be placed in our programs and made available to students. We are 37 working closely with LCPS and our IT department.

38
39 9. ADJOURNMENT

40
41 Ms. Abeyta moved to adjourn, seconded by Dr. Lozano. Motion carried 42 unanimously. Meeting adjourned at 12:44 p.m.
